Job Summary

Langan is seeking a Landscape Architect to join its collaborative team in White Plains, NY. This individual will serve a key function in providing assistance with the planning, design and permitting of landscape architecture, land development and planning projects. In this role, you will have the opportunity to work on integrated design services for both public and private sector clients at sites located throughout the United States and abroad. Our current project list includes a diverse portfolio of urban revitalization and streetscape, retail and commercial projects, school and university design, healthcare clients, smart growth planning, community design, rooftop and courtyard projects, and brownfield redevelopment assignments.

Job Responsibilities

- Assist with the planning, design and permitting of landscape architecture, civil engineering, land development and infrastructure projects using design, engineering and graphic software (AutoCAD, Civil 3D, Sketch Up, Photoshop, Illustrator, and equipment to prepare landscape architecture and design documents);
- Perform zoning, ordinance and permit assessments, and assist with determining the feasibility of projects based on the analysis of collected data;
- Assist with the preparation and modification of various design and engineering documents including reports, specifications, plans, construction schedules, cost estimates and design plans for projects;
- Assess soil composition, terrain, hydrological characteristics, and topographical and geologic data and their impact on the planning and design of projects using reports, maps, drawings, design and engineering plans, tests, and aerial photographs;
- Provide field inspection services, as needed; and
- Perform other duties as requested.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in Landscape Architecture;
- Entry to 2 years of relevant experience. Prior related internship experience is a plus;
- Demonstrated passion for design excellence and the challenges of creating inspiring places in urban environments;
- Individual must be highly creative and possess exceptional computer skills in Adobe Suite, Sketchup, and AutoCAD;
- Strong interpersonal, organizational, verbal and written communication skills;
- Demonstrated ability to follow direction and work in a team environment; and
- Possess reliable transportation to access job sites and a valid driver's license in good standing.
